

London ReFocus, as part of the Sightlines-Initiative Network, invites early educators, artists and others in developing a creative and reflective approach to early years' education and inspired in their practice by the pre-schools of Reggio Emilia, Italy.

London ReFocus Open Meeting

Thursday, 15th June 2017

at Little Jungle Nursery, 47a Amott Road, London SE15 4HU

4 p.m for 4.30 p.m. start 6 p.m. end

'Observing and Interpreting the 100 Languages of Children in Dialogue with the World'

Guest speaker : Penny Lawrence

We are fortunate in having Penny Lawrence presenting at this open meeting. Penny ran the video centre and worked in the documentation team at the municipal pre-schools and infant-toddler centres of Reggio Emilia for three years. She is currently Senior Lecturer in Early Childhood Studies at the University of Roehampton.

Penny will draw on her experience working in Reggio to consider how the 100 Languages of Children are involved in dialogues between children and the world around them.

Photo: Eloise Robinson Balham Nursery School

How to get to the meeting:

By train : From London Bridge to East Dulwich (10 mins. walk); from Victoria or London Bridge Stations to Peckham Rye (8 mins. walk). Good links to Clapham Junction/Victoria, London Bridge

By tube/overground: Jubilee line to Canada Water, then London overground to Peckham Rye

By bus: 176 direct from Waterloo

By car: free off-street parking

Members of Sightlines-Initiative free, non-members £10

How to book: please register through Sightlines Initiative website (links to '2017 Conferences & Seminars')

For other queries contact: SolveigMorris@aol.com or 07939139640 (text)